

AMETIS VILLA – BALI – COOKING SCHOOL INFORMATION

PROGRAM

Commencing at 7am with a visit to the Balinese traditional vibrant market of Pasar Pipitan, guests are accompanied by the Executive Chef where they will experience an educational and informative visit. This special experience offers a true insight into the richness of Balinese daily life, culture and traditions, as well as the exceptional flavours of Indonesian cuisine.

Following the market visit, guests will return to their Villa for breakfast before meeting with the Executive Chef in their villa at 10am to start the cooking class consisting of:

- Sate Lilit Ayam – Marinated minced chicken sate with peanut sauce
- Pepes Ikan – Banana leaves wrapped fillet of fish, with Balinese cucumber salad
- Dadar Gulung – Caramelized coconut rolled with pandanus crepes

The cooking class runs for 2 hours, so at 12noon guests are able to enjoy the meal in their Villa.

Cost: US$80++ per person for Cooking School experience.